So jealous that you live in NYC and can see the great shows! You have to go and report back! Who is Mario playing?

Okay - duh! If I would have clicked on your oh-so-handy link, I could have seen that Mario is playing the director...Does the director have much of a dancing part? I don't remember.

Margo - The director didn't originally have a large part (he was mostly just a voice). However, they have tweaked the show a little to allow for more stage/dance time for Mario. If/when I go, I will give a FULL report.

I'm wondering if while he's rehearsing on B'way if Karina Smirnoff is getting it on with the Mario she's dancing with on DWTS. There have been rumors, and she has pet names for him and is very friendly. Mario Lopez and Karina have been hot and heavy with each other since he was on Dancing.

You're right. He does keep looking better all the time. He seems like a nice guy or did when he was on that show with Drew Pinsky, Danny Bonaduce, and Dick Clark that was like The View with men. He was just a kid then but is still a sweetie.

Joy - I read something about his romance with his dance partner - but I rely on YOU for my DWTS information.

Mario seems super-hot, and super-nice - but I read somewhere that he has been a bit of a diva at A Chorus Line..I'll have to get more dirt on that later.

Oh yes, please get more info about all that. He could have learned how to be a diva from Karina - she does it in a very dramatic Russian diva way.
