HOROSCOPE

BY SALLY BROMPTON

ARIES (March 21–April 20)

A new moon in one of the more secretive areas of your chart may make you rather suspicious this week, but there's no reason to believe that people are plotting against you. On the contrary, if they are planning something, it will most likely be to your financial benefit.

Paul Reiser
3/30/57

TAURUS (April 21–May 21)

A friend or family member is struggling with a personal problem of some kind, and if you can help them you will. But don't get so deeply involved that you start to worry about the situation, too. You can aid them best by staying emotionally detached.

Karl Wuhrer
4/28/67

GEMINI (May 22–June 21)

There's no doubt at all that you'll get whatever you want this week, but if you're as smart as you like to think you are, you'll find ways to persuade others to get it for you. On the work front especially, your star is very much on the rise at the moment.

Neil Patrick Harris
6/15/73

CANCER (June 22–July 23)

A new moon in the most dynamic area of your chart this week will do wonders for your confidence, and the more others say you are aiming too high or expecting too much of yourself, the more you will go all out to prove them wrong. Keep your can-do attitude!

Hilarie Burton
7/1/92

LEO (July 24–Aug. 23)

You'll come under pressure to change your ways this week, and you must resist. You are who you are for a reason, and no one—not even those you are closest to—should demand that you be different. Don't give in to bribes or to blackmail.

Matthew Perry
8/19/69

VIRGO (Aug. 24–Sept. 23)

With Mercury, your ruler, at right angles to Jupiter, planet of excess, you may say one or two things that don't sit well with friends and colleagues. You may be telling them what they need to know, but be sure you know what you're talking about.

Gloria Estefan
9/1/57

LIBRA (Sept. 24–Oct. 23)

You know that your money situation is getting desperate and you know that you need to boost your income. Tuesday's new moon will show you how to make some extra cash, but with spendthrift Jupiter strong as well this week, you may not hang on to it for long.

Mario Lopez
10/10/73

SCORPIO (Oct. 24–Nov. 22)

All things are possible for you at this time of year, but it is still up to you to get the ball rolling. A new moon in your sign early in the week makes this a time of new ideas, new dreams and new beginnings. Don't wait for tomorrow—make things happen today.

Eve
11/10/78

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23–Dec. 21)

An unexpected stroke of good fortune will set your mind at rest and also remind you that the time you worry most is often the time when you have least to worry about. Compared to most people, you seem to be living a charmed existence. Long may it continue.

Bob Barker
12/12/23

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22–Jan. 20)

Yours may be one of the more practical signs of the zodiac, but you're allowed to dream like everyone else, and with this week's new moon influencing your hopes and wishes, you should be dreaming big. They won't be just dreams for long.

Christy Turlington
1/2/69

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21–Feb. 19)

Your reputation is more important to you than you like to let on, and this week's new moon at the mid-heaven angle of your chart will bring the kind of professional recognition that makes you glow with pride. You're about to move up the ladder.

Balthazar Getty
1/22/75

PISCES (Feb. 20–March 20)

Start looking at ways you can make your life more exciting. If you feel you have been in one place with one group of people for too long, maybe now is the time to be a bit more adventurous. Seek out new experiences and broaden your horizons.
